

Registration to courses:

No admitted participant will be registered to attend any course unless the full tuition fee has been paid. Payments should all be made before the deadline in order to guarantee the place in the course. Upon reception of payment, an email containing acknowledge receipt of the course fees and therefore, the registration confirmation will be sent to the participant.

Reduced Fee Eligibility:

We will only consider you for the Student Reduced Fee if you are a full-time PhD or Master student enrolled at a university or college, or if you have just finished university or if you are starting university in the same year as the Summer School course. You will be asked to provide a proof of this status at the moment of the application.

You are also eligible for the Reduced Fee if you are a GSE Graduate or a UPF/UAB Alumni, as well as if you have participated in previous editions of the Barcelona GSE Summer School.

Cancellation Policy:

All cancellations must be received in writing and sent in advance by email. Participants wishing to withdraw from the program will have their tuition fees partially refunded according to the following policies:

- Cancellation before June 1st: Full refund less 100 euros of administrative costs
- Cancellation before June 11th: 50% refund less 100 euros of administrative costs
- Cancellation after June 11th: No refunds will be given.

All refunds will be processed after July 15th and confirmed by email to the participant. Refunds for credit/debit card payments will be made onto the credit/debit card used to make the payment. Refunds for payments made by bank draft will be returned by to the bank account provided.